MEMO FOR: R.R.B.

FROM : J.E.K.

SUBJECT : Suggestions for NFAC Briefing of the Visiting University Presidents on Thursday, 26 October (and Other Matters)

STATINTL

1. I am distressed about the mixup on your schedule. You and [REDACTED] should have been alerted on 13 September, when the date for the visit was set. It was my responsibility and I extend abject apologies.

2. We have succeeded (thanks to the accommodation of DDO and DDS&T) in reshuffling the schedule so that the NFAC briefing can be scheduled at 10:30, immediately following the initial meeting of the visitors with Turner and yourself.

STATINTL

3. A copy of the revised schedule for the day is attached [REDACTED] also has a copy).

For the NFAC briefing, let me suggest the following:

Introductory remarks on the structure and function of NFAC by yourself. STATINTL

STATINTL
A discussion of the expanding and changing role of economic intelligence by [REDACTED] (At the last university presidents briefing, in June, [REDACTED] had prepared himself for a discussion he was not allowed time to present. Also, several of the prospective visitors have expressed interest in the subject of economic intelligence.)

Further remarks on the same subject from his viewpoint by [REDACTED] STATINTL STATINTL

Because of interests expressed by the visitors, in addition to the foregoing, [REDACTED] might be asked to be present and available to answer questions.

5. All of the NFAC Office Directors have been invited to attend the briefing (on the old schedule, at 2:00). If you prefer to spare the remainder of them [REDACTED] I imagine they will be grateful.

STATINTL

6. Please let me know if there is anyone else you wish to have present. The above suggestion calls for you [REDACTED] as escorts of the visitors) to be present.
